

St. Brigid's GNS, Palmerstown, Dublin 20.

Data Protection Notice

Parents/Guardians/Pupils/Employees

St. Brigid's GNS collects, processes and retains personal information that you knowingly disclosed on enrolling your daughter or on accepting employment in the school. Data is also aggregated for statistical purposes and reporting to the Department of Education and Skills and other bodies with a statutory role in receiving such information.

Full details of how your personal data is processed and to what other parties your data may be disclosed is set out in our Data Protection Policy and, where applicable, our Data Protection Privacy Statement for Parents and Guardians.

Data will continue to be collected and processed during your daughter's attendance in the school, or if you are an employee, for the duration of your employment. A copy of this policy and statement are available on request.

As a parent/guardian of a pupil or employee, as the case may be, you are deemed to have consented to the Chairperson of the Board, the Principal, Class Teacher, School Secretary or other person authorised on behalf of St. Brigid's GNS to contact you in person, by text, mobile phone, telephone call, letter or email in relation to any matter specific to your child or if an employee, to matters relating to your employment.

St. Brigid's GNS is committed to preserving your privacy in accordance with the Data Protection Acts 1988 and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

If you are concerned about how your personal data is processed please bring your concerns to the attention of the Board of Management.

Fergus Hayden.

Chairperson of the Board of Management.
